

Atlanta:

THE UNOFFICIAL CAPITAL OF THE LGBTQ SOUTH

Atlanta is a primary destination for LGBTQ travelers, both for pleasure and for business. Since 2011, Destination: Gay Atlanta, a partnership between the Georgia Voice and the Atlanta Convention & Visitors Bureau, has been the “official” guide to the city.

Full of information and tips on negotiating Atlanta’s neighborhoods, nightlife and tourist attractions, Destination: Gay Atlanta is the go-to guide for every gay visitor. Comprehensive listings of major events, local hotels, restaurants, retail stores and community organizations ensure that each visitor will be in the know.

Over 18,000 copies of the print edition are available throughout the city in retail stores, attractions, hotels and restaurants as well as all City of Atlanta visitor centers including Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport, Underground Atlanta and the World Congress Center. *Some copies may be inserted in the Georgia Voice print edition.

The digital version of Destination: Gay Atlanta resides at www.gay-atlanta.com, another partnership between Georgia Voice and the ACVB. The website carries updated information on all things gay in Atlanta throughout the year. Reach out to Atlanta’s LGBTQ visitors with a listing, display ad or web ad in the yearly Destination: Gay Atlanta guide.
